TO THE HONORABLE RONALD B. KING, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Pulman, Cappuccio & Pullen, LLP (“PC&P”), attorneys for Gabriel Investment Group, Inc., et al., debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, “Debtors”) hereby files this First Interim Application for Allowance of Legal Fees and Expenses for Pulman, Cappuccio, & Pullen, LLP, as Counsel to Debtors for the Time Period of September 27, 2019 to April 30, 2020 (“First Interim Application”), respectfully asking the Court to approve and authorize this First Interim Application, based on the following:

<sup>1</sup> The Debtors that are jointly administered are Gabriel Investment Group, Inc. [19-52298]; Don’s & Ben’s, Inc. [19-52299]; Gabriel Holdings, LLC [19-52300]; SA Discount Liquor, Inc. [19-52301]; and Gabriel GP, Inc. [19-52301]

I. Factual and Procedural Background

1. On September 27, 2019 (the “Petition Date”), Debtors filed voluntary petitions under chapter 11, title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this First Interim Application under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue for this case is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

3. The statutory predicates for the relief sought by this First Interim Application are sections 328(a) and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. A copy of the proposed order in conformity with Local Rule 9013 is attached as Exhibit A. The Summary of the First Interim Application is attached as Exhibit B.

5. Debtors are a chain of 33 liquor stores located primarily in San Antonio, Texas. Debtors have continued to operate during the course of this Bankruptcy Case.

6. On October 23, 2019, Debtors filed the Application to Employ Pulman, Cappuccio & Pullen, LLP as Counsel [ECF No. 79] (the “Employment Application”), seeking to employ PC&P as of September 27, 2019. As noted in the Employment Application, PC&P held $220,715.00 as a retainer for security against post-petition fees and expenses, as approved by orders of the Court.

7. On October 30, 2019, Debtors filed the Motion for Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Professionals [ECF No. 89] (the “Interim Fee Procedure Motion”), wherein the Debtors sought to establish a procedure for estate professionals to receive a monthly payment of 80% of fees and 100% of expenses.

8. On November 14, 2019, the Court entered the Order on the Application to Employ Pulman, Cappuccio & Pullen, LLP as Counsel [ECF No. 113] (the “Employment Order”), wherein the Court authorized the Debtor to employ PC&P as counsel. A copy of the Employment Order is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

9. On November 7, 2019, the Court entered the Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Professionals [ECF No. 105] (the “Fee Procedure Order”), wherein the Court approved the payment of monthly fee procedures. Since that date, PC&P has submitted monthly fee statements as required by the Fee Procedure Order, receiving $275,808.36 in fees and $5,946.86 in expenses.

II. Application

10. PC&P has provided legal services and expended 1002.40 hours through April 30, 2020, totaling $347,446.00 in fees representing Debtor from the Petition Date to April 30, 2020 (the “Application Period”). Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a copy of a Compensation Support Exhibit itemizing the fees incurred by PC&P by date within the main bankruptcy case. Attached hereto as Exhibit E is a copy of a Compensation Support Exhibit itemizing the fees incurred by PC&P by category within the main bankruptcy case. Attached hereto as Exhibit F is a copy of the Invoices showing the Fees and Expenses incurred by PC&P by date within the adversary proceeding Gabriel Investment Group Inc. v. Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, Adv. Proc. No. 20-5010 (“TABC Adversary”). Attached hereto as Exhibit G is a copy of the Invoices showing the Fees and Expenses incurred by PC&P by date within the adversary proceeding Gabriel Investment Group Inc. et al v. Michelle M. Maloney, Adv. Proc. No. 20-5020 (“Maloney Adversary”). In general, PC&P: (1) prepared first day pleadings to continue the uninterrupted operation of the Debtors’ business; (2) negotiated the continued use of cash collateral with PNC

Bank; (3) attended weekly telephone conferences with PNC Bank to inform them about Debtors' ongoing operations; (3) negotiated critical vendor status with Southern Glazer's Wine and Spirits of Texas, LLC ("Glazer's") and RNDC Texas LLC dba Republic National Dist. Company ("Republic"); (4) drafted and filed an initial plan of reorganization for the Debtors; (5) prepared and filed Debtor's Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs; (6) prepared for and attended the Initial Debtor Interview and the First Meeting of Creditors; (7) drafted and filed the motion to sell assets of the Debtors to Nooner Holdings, Ltd.; (8) prepared to defend Debtors' ability to continue as debtors-in-possession after PNC Bank and the Unsecured Creditors Committee filed a motion to appoint a trustee; (9) examined the claims filed by creditors, including initiating an adversary proceeding against Michelle Maloney related to the validity of her lien against Debtors' assets; and (10) assisted the Debtors in retaining a Chief Restructuring Officer to help manage the Debtors' reorganization efforts.

11. In connection with the representation, PC&P also incurred expenses totaling $5,946.86. Attached hereto as Exhibit H is a chart demonstrating an itemization of the expenses incurred during the course of the Case through April 30, 2020.

12. All fees and expenses for which compensation is requested by PC&P were incurred for and on behalf of the Debtors, and not on behalf of any creditor or other person. This is the first application for fees and expenses filed by PC&P.

13. The First Interim Application requests interim approval of fees in the amount of $347,446.00 and expenses in the amount of $5,946.86, for a total allowed amount of $353,392.86. Based on the payments already received under the Fee Procedure Order, PC&P requests payment of $71,637.64, which is the remaining unpaid balance owed by the Debtors.

14. PC&P submits that this First Interim Application complies with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy local Rules, and the United States Trustee Debtor Guidelines.

III. Authorities and Argument

15. Bankruptcy Code section 330(a) provides that in determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, a Court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of the services rendered by the professional, while taking into account the relevant factors, including the following:

- The time spent on such services;
- The rates charged for such services;
- Whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time which the service was rendered, toward the completion of the chapter 11 case;
- Whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issues or task addressed;
- With respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- Whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than chapter 11 cases.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3). See also Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctrs., Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 850 (3d Cir. 1994) (noting Bankruptcy Code's policy of providing adequate compensation and stating that "Congress rather clearly intended to provide sufficient economic incentive to lure competent bankruptcy specialists to practice in the bankruptcy courts.") (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).

16. In the Fifth Circuit, the reasonableness of a bankruptcy fee award is further evaluated pursuant to a "lodestar" analysis, as considered in light of the factors enumerated in

Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974). The lodestar fee is equal to the number of hours reasonably expended multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate. The lodestar is then adjusted to reflect the special circumstances of the case and the Johnson factors. McClain v. Lufkin Indus., 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 4451, *40-41 (5th Cir. 2008); In re Cahill, 428 F.3d 536, 539-40 (5th Cir. 2005), In re Fender, 12 F.3d 480, 487 (5th Cir. 1994); In re Mirant Corp., 354 B.R. 113, 126, n.28 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2006).

17. The sum of $347,446.00 in professional and paraprofessional fees incurred in connection with the First Interim Application are reasonable compensation for the professional services rendered by PC&P based on a lodestar analysis and the standards first set forth in Johnson, 488 F.2d at 717-19, made applicable to bankruptcy cases in First Colonial Corporation of America, 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977), cert denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977), and as further explained in In re Cahill, 428 F.3d at 539-40, In re Fender, 12 F.3d at 487, In re Lawler, 807 F.2d 1207 (5th Cir. 1987) and Copper Liquor, Inc. v. Adolph Coors Co., 684 F.2d 1087 (5th Cir. 1982). Pursuant to such decisions, PC&P requests that the Court consider the following factors in determining the reasonableness of the amount of professional compensation requested by this First Interim Application:

(a) Time and Labor Required. PC&P expended 1002.40<sup>2</sup> hours of professional and paraprofessional services on behalf of Debtors during the Application Period. Exhibit B outlines the names of all attorneys and paralegals that have provided services on behalf of Debtors, their respective hourly billing rates, a description of the services rendered and the number of hours spent and fees billed during the Application Period. The time and labor spent by PC&P were reasonable and necessary to provide Debtors with the counsel needed to carry out their statutory and fiduciary duties.

(b) The novelty and difficulty of the questions involved. The issues addressed by PC&P in connection with its services for Debtors were sometimes complex and required the expertise of professionals with a specialized background in chapter 11 bankruptcy law.

<sup>2</sup> This includes 14.4 hours for which PC&P determined to not charge the Debtors for the task; however, the time entry was still recorded.

(c) The skill requisite to perform the services properly. The services performed by PC&P's professionals on behalf of Debtors required the skills of trained bankruptcy professionals with an appreciation and understanding of advanced chapter 11 concepts. PC&P has professionals who operate primarily in the specialized field of bankruptcy law and its professionals are well suited for this engagement based on their education and experience. PC&P has endeavored to utilize the various levels of experience and seniority of its professionals to meet the requirements of the tasks that were presented, and in this regard, PC&P believes it has effectively and efficiently represented the interests of the Debtors in this matter. As demonstrated by Exhibit I PC&P's attorneys are experienced in all aspects of bankruptcy matters and possess a high level of expertise.

(d) Preclusion of other employment. The engagement did not materially preclude PC&P from accepting other engagements.

(e) The fee customarily charged. PC&P seeks allowance of professional fees based on hourly rates that are consistent with the rates charged by PC&P to its other clients. The hourly rates charged by PC&P are within the range of those customarily charged by other professionals having comparable skills and expertise in similar matters.

(f) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent. PC&P's fees are fixed according to the time spent on behalf of the Debtors and PC&P's prevailing hourly rates. PC&P's compensation is contingent on the availability of sufficient assets and funds in the estate to pay such fees, and on allowance of such fees by the Court.

(g) Time limitations imposed by client or circumstances. The initial filing of the Cases required PC&P to dedicate a significant number of hours in the beginning of the Cases to stabilize the Debtors' operations. After the Debtors' operations were stabilized, a significant amount of time was spent on addressing the sale of assets to Nooner Holdings, Ltd., preparation of a plan of reorganization, and the request by PNC Bank and the Unsecured Creditors Committee to appoint a chapter 11 trustee.

(h) Amount involved and results obtained. The amount of compensation requested in this First Interim Application is commensurate with the services provided and the results obtained. Among other things, PC&P's efforts have resulted in a result that should allow for a significant recovery to creditors in these Cases.

(i) The experience, reputation and ability of the professional. PC&P believes that it is well qualified to serve as bankruptcy counsel for Debtors. PC&P's professionals have represented numerous debtors, creditors, trustees, and bidders for estate assets in some of the largest and most sophisticated bankruptcy cases in Texas. PC&P's professionals enjoy an excellent reputation as experienced bankruptcy practitioners, capable of guiding Debtors through the complicated chapter 11 process.

(j) Undesirability of the case. Representation of Debtors in this case has not been undesirable, except for the risk of non-payment of fees and expenses associated with any Chapter 11 representation.

(k) Nature and length of the professional relationship with the client. PC&P has represented Debtors for several years, as set forth in the Employment Application. That relationship has allowed the Cases to be managed in a manner beneficial to the Debtors and its creditors.

(l) Awards in similar cases. PC&P believes the professional fees sought hereunder are consistent with fees charged by similarly skilled professionals for comparable services in other bankruptcy cases. The fees sought by this First Interim Application are based on hourly rates that are equal to or less than PC&P's customary and usual rates for its other clients for similar services. Further, the hourly rates charged by PC&P are within the range of those customarily charged by other professionals having comparable skills and expertise in similar matters. PC&P respectfully submits that the compensation sought herein is reasonable given the magnitude and complexity of these cases and the time dedicated to the representation of the Debtors.

18. Based on the criteria outlined in 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3) and the lodestar analysis, as evaluated in terms of the Johnson factors, PC&P believes the professional fees requested are reasonable considering the nature and extent of the services provided by PC&P.

19. The out-of-pocket expenses incurred by PC&P during the Application Period, totaling $5,946.86, are itemized on the invoices attached hereto as Exhibit H and summarized on Exhibit H attached hereto. PC&P has billed only for expenses actually incurred by PC&P. Accordingly, charges for expenses such as courier fees, filing fees, outside copy service, parking, travel, postage, meals, charges for public records and transcription services are billed at the actual cost to PC&P. PC&P is generally billed a flat monthly fee for legal research through Westlaw and such charges are allocated based on actual usage to PC&P's clients.

20. The fees and expenses incurred by PC&P in representing the Debtor were reasonable and necessary for the administration of the Case. PC&P performed these services within a reasonable period of time by professionals that have significant experience in bankruptcy cases, including Thomas Rice who has been certified by the State of Texas in the practice of business bankruptcy law. The rates charged by PC&P for this matter are comparable to the rates charged by PC&P in non-bankruptcy matters. Therefore, PC&P has met the requirements of section 330(a) and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Court should award the fees and expenses sought in this First Interim Application.

WHEREFORE, PC&P prays that upon consideration hereof, this Court enter an Order (i) approving PC&P's request for interim fees in the amount of $347,446.00 and expenses in the amount of $5,946.86, for a total allowed interim fees and expenses of $353,392.86, (ii) authorizing the Debtors to pay PC&P the unpaid allowed amount of $71,637.64 and (iii) granting such other and further relief as the Court finds appropriate to grant.
